§ 2.1. General grant of powers.

The Town of Occoquan shall have and may exercise all powers that are now or hereafter may be conferred upon or delegated to towns under the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, as fully and completely as though such powers were specifically enumerated herein, and no enumeration of particular powers by this charter shall be held to be exclusive, and the town shall have, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers, and privileges and be subject to all the duties and obligations now appertaining to and incumbent on the town as a municipal corporation.

§ 2.2. Adoption of powers granted by Code of Virginia.

The powers granted in § 2.1 of this charter include specifically, but are not limited to, all powers set forth in Chapter 11 (§ 15.2-1100 et seq.) of Title 15.2 of the Code of Virginia (1950), as amended.

In addition to any powers granted by general law to license and regulate businesses, the town council shall also have the right to license and regulate the holding and location of shows, circuses, public exhibitions, carnivals, and similar shows or fairs and to prohibit the holding of the same, or any of them, within the town.

*Chapter 3.
Mayor and Town Council.*

§ 3.1. Election, qualification, and term of office for mayor and council.

The Town of Occoquan shall be governed by a town council composed of five councilmembers and a mayor, all of whom shall be qualified voters in the town and shall be elected by the qualified voters of the town in the manner provided by law from the town at large. The councilmembers and mayor in office at the time of adoption of this charter shall continue in office until the expiration of the terms for which they were elected or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. An election for five councilmembers and mayor shall be held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November, two-thousand and twenty-two. Elections shall be held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November every four years thereafter. The councilmembers and mayor so elected shall take office on the first day of the following January. The councilmembers and mayor shall serve for a term of four years, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

§ 3.2. Council a continuing body.

The council shall be a continuing body, and no measure pending before such body nor any contract or obligation incurred shall abate or be discontinued because of the expiration of the term of office or removal of any councilmember.

§ 3.3. Powers and duties of the council.

The government of the Town of Occoquan shall be vested in the council, which shall have the power to enact and enforce ordinances to carry into effect all powers granted by this charter and by law. The council shall be responsible for the determination of all matters of policy for the Town of Occoquan and for ensuring the implementation thereof by the town administration. All actions requiring a majority of all members of council shall require three affirmative votes of councilmembers.

The mayor shall see that the duties of the various appointed officers are faithfully performed and shall execute such documents or instruments as the council, this charter, or the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia shall require. The mayor shall be the head of the town government for all ceremonial purposes and shall perform such other duties consistent with the office as may be imposed by the town council. The mayor shall preside over the meetings of the council but shall not vote except in the case of a tie vote.

§ 3.5. Vice mayor.

The town council shall, by a majority of all of its members, elect a vice mayor from its membership at its first meeting to serve for a term of four years in the absence of or during the disability of the mayor, and the vice mayor shall possess the powers and discharge the duties of the mayor when serving as mayor.

§ 3.6. Meetings of council.

The council shall fix the time of its regular meetings, which shall be at least six times per year, and, except as herein provided, the council shall establish its own rules of procedure and such rules as are necessary for the orderly conduct of its business not inconsistent with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Three members of the council in the absence of the mayor, or three members of the council in addition to the mayor, as applicable, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting.

If any member of the council shall be voluntarily absent from three regular meetings of the council consecutively, his or her seat may be deemed vacant by resolution approved by a majority vote (three) of all members elected to the council, and thereupon his or her unexpired term shall be filled according to the provisions of this charter.

§ 3.7. Salaries.

The salaries of the mayor, councilmembers, members of boards and commissions, and all appointed officers of the town shall be authorized and fixed by the council at a sum not to exceed any limitations placed thereon by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Increases in the salaries of the mayor and members of the council shall not be effective until the first day of January following the next local election after the council approves such increase.

*Chapter 4.
Appointed Officers.*

§ 4.1. Town manager.

The council shall appoint a town manager, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the town and have the powers and perform the duties set forth in this charter, general law, and town ordinances and shall be responsible to the council for the proper administration of all affairs of the town.

The town manager shall be chosen by the council solely on the basis of executive and administrative qualifications in the profession of public management. The town manager need not be a resident of the town or the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The town manager shall appoint and when necessary suspend, demote, and remove the town clerk, the chief of police, and any of the other officers and employees of the town except as otherwise provided in this charter or town ordinances. The town manager may authorize the head of a town office, department, or board to appoint subordinates in such office, department, or board. With regard to any of the officers subject to the town manager's appointment power, the town manager may appoint an acting officer in the case of the absence, incapacity, death, or resignation of the permanent officer.

The action of the council in suspending or removing the town manager shall be final, it being the intention of this charter to vest all authority and fix all responsibility for any such suspension or removal in the council.

§ 4.2. Acting town manager.

The town manager may designate an individual who shall serve as the acting town manager in the event of the absence, incapacity, death, or resignation of the town manager until the town manager's return to duty or the appointment by the council of a successor.

§ 4.3. Town attorney.

The council shall appoint a town attorney, who shall be an attorney-at-law licensed to practice in the Commonwealth of Virginia. The town attorney may designate an individual who shall serve as the acting town attorney in the event of the absence, incapacity, death, or resignation of the town attorney until the town attorney's return to duty or the appointment by the council of a successor.
