"Eligible telework expenses" means expenses incurred during the taxable year pursuant to a telework agreement, in an amount up to $1,200 for each participating employee, that enable a participating employee to begin to telework, which expenses are not otherwise the subject of a deduction from income claimed by the employer in any tax year. Such expenses include, but are not limited to, expenses paid or incurred to purchase computers, computer-related hardware and software, modems, data processing equipment, telecommunications equipment, high-speed Internet connectivity equipment, computer security software and devices, and all related delivery, installation, and maintenance fees. Eligible telework expenses may also include up to a maximum of $20,000 for conducting a telework assessment on or after January 1, 2012. Such costs shall be ineligible for this credit if they are otherwise taken as a deduction by the employer from income in any taxable year. The costs included and allowed to be taken as a credit include program planning costs, which may include direct program development and training costs, raw labor costs, and professional consulting fees. Such costs shall not include those for which a credit is claimed under any other provision of this chapter. The credit for conducting a telework assessment shall be allowed once for each employer meeting the requirements herein.

"Employer" means any employer subject to the income tax imposed by this chapter.

"Participating employee" means an employee who has entered into a telework agreement with his employer on or after July 1, 2012, in accordance with policies set by the Virginia Department of Rail and Public Transportation who teleworked on a full-time basis for his employer for at least three months during the taxable year. ~~The term shall~~ "Participating employee" does not include an individual who is self-employed or an individual who ordinarily spends a majority of the workday at a location other than the place where his duties are normally performed.

The term shall not include home-based businesses, extensions of the workday, or work performed on a weekend or holiday.

"Telework agreement" means an agreement signed by the employer and the participating employee, on or after July 1, 2012, but before January 1, 2019, that defines the terms of a telework arrangement, including the number of days per month the participating employee will telework in order to qualify for the credit, and any restrictions on the location from which the employee will telework.

"Telework assessment" means an optional assessment leading to the development of policies and procedures necessary to implement a formal telework program that would qualify the employer for the credit provided in this section, including but not limited to a workforce profile; a telework program business case and plan; a detailed accounting of the purpose, goals, and operating procedures of the telework program; methodologies for measuring telework program activities and success; and a deployment schedule for increasing telework activity.

82 in which the applications are received. When the application and amount of tax credits have been
83 approved and the employer applicant notified, such employer may make purchases approved for the tax
84 credits during the immediately following taxable year or lose the right to such credits any other
85 requirements deemed appropriate by the Tax Commissioner. The Tax Commissioner shall not require an 86 eligible employer to reserve or obtain advance approval for tax credits allowed under this section.

87 F. In no event shall the aggregate amount of tax credits approved by the Tax Commissioner exceed
88 $1 million annually. In the event the credit amounts on the applications filed with the Tax
89 Commissioner exceed the maximum aggregate amount of tax credits, then the tax credits shall be

91 the eligible employers who filed timely applications.

92 G. Actions of the Tax Commissioner relating to the approval or denial of applications for 93 reservations of tax credits pursuant to this section shall be exempt from the provisions of the
