

2022 SESSION

ENROLLED

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 280

Commending the Reverend Dr. Stephen L. Hewlett.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 28, 2022
Agreed to by the Senate, March 3, 2022

WHEREAS, the Reverend Dr. Stephen L. Hewlett, esteemed pastor of Riverview Baptist Church in Richmond, who has provided enlightened and edifying spiritual leadership to his congregation for nearly 20 years, will retire in March 2022; and

WHEREAS, a product of Chesterfield County Public Schools, Stephen Hewlett enlisted with the United States Marine Corps before attending college, serving his country with valor and distinction; and

WHEREAS, following his honorable discharge, Stephen Hewlett graduated with honors from Virginia State University with a bachelor's degree in political science and subsequently earned a master's degree in divinity from the Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University and a doctorate of jurisprudence from the Thurgood Marshall School of Law at Texas Southern University; and

WHEREAS, Stephen Hewlett pursued his educational opportunities with great energy and a sense of purpose, managing his course loads while working other jobs and raising a young family; and

WHEREAS, prior to joining Riverview Baptist Church, Stephen Hewlett imparted his studied and inspired spiritual guidance to various congregations as an associate minister at Union Grove Baptist Church in Petersburg, Mt. Sinai Baptist Church in Houston, and Second Baptist Church in Chester and as pastor of Gravel Hill Baptist Church in Varina; and

WHEREAS, Stephen Hewlett was installed as the eighth pastor of Riverview Baptist Church on April 13, 2003, and has contributed mightily to the congregation's ministries, community outreach, and other spiritual endeavors ever since; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his service as a pastor, Stephen Hewlett previously served as a moderator of the Shiloh Baptist Association and has worked since 1991 as a criminal defense attorney, ensuring his clients receive fair and equitable treatment before the law; and

WHEREAS, in retirement, Stephen Hewlett will enjoy more time to spend with his loving wife, Linda, as well as his four children, ten grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Reverend Dr. Stephen L. Hewlett, a respected pastor and attorney, on the occasion of his retirement from full-time ministerial duties at Riverview Baptist Church; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Reverend Dr. Stephen L. Hewlett as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for his contributions to the Commonwealth.
