Commending The Elizabeth Kates Foundation.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 10, 2022

WHEREAS, Elizabeth M. Kates was the first female warden in the history of the system of prisons operated by the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Kates in 1934 commenced her tenure as warden of the Virginia Correctional Center for Women (VCCW), located in Goochland County, with an inmate population of 13; and

WHEREAS, well in advance of many in her profession, Elizabeth Kates believed that "inmates in prison could benefit from personal growth, and by learning the necessary job skills to become productive members of the community after paying their debt to society"; and

WHEREAS, when the inmate population grew and inmates' needs changed, Elizabeth Kates called upon members of the Richmond Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity for Women to assist her in meeting inmates' needs for vocational training and general education; and

WHEREAS, Pi Beta Phi members responded enthusiastically and sacrificially, resulting in creation of the Elizabeth Kates Foundation in 1942; and

WHEREAS, The Elizabeth Kates Foundation enables VCCW inmates to enroll in on-site community college courses in several subjects; and

WHEREAS, The Elizabeth Kates Foundation enables VCCW inmates to earn an associate's degree through the "Campus within Walls" program of Southside Virginia Community College; and

WHEREAS, The Elizabeth Kates Foundation offers scholarships that provide inmates with the expenses for tuition, books, and supplies; and

WHEREAS, The Elizabeth Kates Foundation provides scholarships enabling inmates to enroll in correspondence courses through several national universities; and

WHEREAS, The Elizabeth Kates Foundation further supports the VCCW's highly successful program in horticulture, offering inmates a certificate in Career and Technical Education, thus enabling inmates after release to secure employment in horticulture, landscape, and nursery firms; and

WHEREAS, The Elizabeth Kates Foundation conducts two separate Book Club programs for inmates, one to assist women in earning the General Education Diploma (GED) and one to assist women who have earned the GED to further their education; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth Kates served as warden of VCCW for 30 years, retiring in 1964; she passed away the following year and bequeathed to The Elizabeth Kates Foundation funds sufficient to help support her life's work well into the future; and

WHEREAS, members of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity for Women and all who support the vision of Elizabeth Kates are commemorating in 2022 the 80th anniversary of the establishment of The Elizabeth Kates Foundation; and

WHEREAS, because the population of the Virginia Correctional Center for Women now numbers some 550 inmates, the work of The Elizabeth Kates Foundation is as important as ever; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That The Elizabeth Kates Foundation hereby be commended for 80 years of devoted service to the inmates of the Virginia Correctional Center for Women; and, be it
