Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 58.1-602 and 58.1-603, as it is currently effective and as it may become effective, of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 58.1-602. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly shows otherwise:

"Accommodations" means any room or rooms, lodgings, or accommodations in any hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, tourist cabin, camping grounds, club, or any other place in which rooms, lodging, space, or accommodations are regularly furnished to transients for a consideration to transients for overnight sleeping.

"Accommodations fee" means the room charge less the discount room charge, if any, provided that the accommodations fee shall not be less than $0.

"Accommodations intermediary" means any person other than an accommodations provider that facilitates the sale of an accommodation, charges a room charge to the customer, and charges an accommodations fee to the customer, which fee it retains as compensation for facilitating the sale. For purposes of this definition, "facilitates the sale" includes brokering, coordinating, or in any other way arranging for the purchase of the right to use accommodations via a transaction directly, including via one or more payment processors, between a customer and an accommodations provider.

"Accommodations intermediary" does not include a person:

1. If the accommodations are provided by an accommodations provider operating under a trademark, trade name, or service mark belonging to such person; or

2. Who facilitates the sale of an accommodation if (i) the price paid by the customer to such person is equal to the price paid by such person to the accommodations provider for the use of the accommodations and (ii) the only compensation received by such person for facilitating the sale of the accommodation is a commission paid from the accommodations provider to such person.

"Accommodations provider" means any person that furnishes accommodations to the general public for compensation. The term "furnishes" includes the sale of use or possession or the sale of the right to use or possess.

Any person providing advertising as defined in this section shall be deemed to be the user or consumer of all tangible personal property purchased for use in such advertising.

"Affiliate" means the same as such term is defined in § 58.1-439.18.

"Amplification, transmission and distribution equipment" means, but is not limited to, production, distribution, and other equipment used to provide Internet-access services, such as computer and communications equipment and software used for storing, processing and retrieving end-user subscribers' requests.

"Cost price" means the actual cost of an item or article of tangible personal property computed in the same manner as the sales price as defined in this section without any deductions therefrom on account of the cost of materials used, labor, or service costs, transportation charges, or any expenses whatsoever.

"Custom program" means a computer program that is specifically designed and developed only for one customer. The combining of two or more prewritten programs does not constitute a custom computer program. A prewritten program that is modified to any degree remains a prewritten program and does not become custom.

"Discount room charge" means the full amount charged by the accommodations provider to the accommodations intermediary, or an affiliate thereof, for furnishing the accommodations.

"Distribution" means the transfer or delivery of tangible personal property for use, consumption, or

61 transfer or delivery of tangible personal property for resale or any use, consumption, or storage
62 otherwise exempt under this chapter.

63 "Gross proceeds" means the charges made or voluntary contributions received for the lease or rental
64 of tangible personal property or for furnishing services, computed with the same deductions, where 65 applicable, as for sales price as defined in this section over the term of the lease, rental, service, or use,
66 but not less frequently than monthly. "Gross proceeds" does not include finance charges, carrying

68 property under conditional lease or rental contracts or other conditional contracts providing for the 69 deferred payments of the lease or rental price.

70 "Gross sales" means the sum total of all retail sales of tangible personal property or services as 71 defined in this chapter, without any deduction, except as provided in this chapter. "Gross sales" does not
72 include the federal retailers' excise tax or the federal diesel fuel excise tax imposed in § 4091 of the 73 Internal Revenue Code if the excise tax is billed to the purchaser separately from the selling price of the
74 article, or the Virginia retail sales or use tax, or any sales or use tax imposed by any county or city
75 under § 58.1-605 or 58.1-606.

77 Commonwealth from other states as well as from foreign countries, and "export" and "exported" are

84 begins with the research or development of semiconductor products, equipment, or processes, includes 85 the handling and storage of raw materials at a plant site, and continues to the point that the product is 86 packaged for final sale and either shipped or conveyed to a warehouse. Without limiting the foregoing,
87 any semiconductor equipment, fuel, power, energy, supplies, or other tangible personal property shall be
88 deemed used as part of the integrated process if its use contributes, before, during, or after production,
89 to higher product quality, production yields, or process efficiencies. Except as otherwise provided by 90 law, "integrated process" does not mean general maintenance or administration.

100 production where the product is finished or completed for sale and conveyed to a warehouse at the 101 production site, and also includes equipment and supplies used for production line testing and quality
102 control. "Manufacturing" also includes the necessary ancillary activities of newspaper and magazine
103 printing when such activities are performed by the publisher of any newspaper or magazine for sale
104 daily or regularly at average intervals not exceeding three months.

105 The determination of whether any manufacturing, mining, processing, refining or conversion activity
106 is industrial in nature shall be made without regard to plant size, existence or size of finished product

108 relating principally to the size of the business. Further, "industrial in nature" includes, but is not limited

112 commercial buildings, and permanent additions thereof, comprised of one or more sections that are
113 intended to become real property, primarily constructed at a location other than the permanent site, built
114 to comply with the Virginia Industrialized Building Safety Law (§ 36-70 et seq.) as regulated by the 115 Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development, and shipped with most permanent 116 components in place to the site of final assembly. For purposes of this chapter, "modular building" does 117 not include a mobile office as defined in § 58.1-2401 or any manufactured building subject to and 119 Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. § 5401 et seq.).

120 "Modular building manufacturer" means a person that owns or operates a manufacturing facility and is engaged in the fabrication, construction and assembling of building supplies and materials into modular buildings, as defined in this section, at a location other than at the site where the modular building will be assembled on the permanent foundation and may or may not be engaged in the process of affixing the modules to the foundation at the permanent site.

"Occasional sale" means a sale of tangible personal property not held or used by a seller in the course of an activity for which it is required to hold a certificate of registration, including the sale or exchange of all or substantially all the assets of any business and the reorganization or liquidation of any business, provided that such sale or exchange is not one of a series of sales and exchanges sufficient in number, scope and character to constitute an activity requiring the holding of a certificate of registration.

All sales for resale must be made in strict compliance with regulations applicable to this chapter. Any dealer making a sale for resale which is not in strict compliance with such regulations shall be personally liable for payment of the tax.

The terms "retail sale" and a "sale at retail" specifically include the following: (i) the sale or charges for any accommodations furnished to transients for overnight sleeping for less than 90 continuous days; (ii) sales of tangible personal property to persons for resale when because of the operation of the business, or its very nature, or the lack of a place of business in which to display a certificate of registration, or the lack of a place of business in which to keep records, or the lack of adequate records, or because such persons are minors or transients, or because such persons are engaged in essentially service businesses, or for any other reason there is likelihood that the Commonwealth will lose tax funds due to the difficulty of policing such business operations; (iii) the separately stated charge made for automotive refinish repair materials that are permanently applied to or affixed to a motor vehicle during its repair; and (iv) the separately stated charge for equipment available for lease or purchase by a provider of satellite television programming to the customer of such programming. Equipment sold to a provider of satellite television programming for subsequent lease or purchase by the customer of such programming shall be deemed a sale for resale. The Tax Commissioner is authorized to promulgate regulations requiring vendors of or sellers to such persons to collect the tax imposed by this chapter on the cost price of such tangible personal property to such persons and may refuse to issue certificates of registration to such persons. The terms "retail sale" and a "sale at retail" also specifically include the separately stated charge made for supplies used during automotive repairs whether or not there is transfer of title or possession of the supplies and whether or not the supplies are attached to the automobile. The purchase of such supplies by an automotive repairer for sale to the customer of such 182 repair services shall be deemed a sale for resale.

183 The term "transient" does not include a purchaser of camping memberships, time-shares,
184 condominiums, or other similar contracts or interests that permit the use of, or constitute an interest in,
185 real estate, however created or sold and whether registered with the Commonwealth or not. Further, a
186 purchaser of a right or license which entitles the purchaser to use the amenities and facilities of a
187 specific real estate project on an ongoing basis throughout its term shall not be deemed a transient,
188 provided, however, that the term or time period involved is for seven years or more.

189 The terms "retail sale" and "sale at retail" do not include a transfer of title to tangible personal
190 property after its use as tools, tooling, machinery or equipment, including dies, molds, and patterns, if (i)
191 at the time of purchase, the purchaser is obligated, under the terms of a written contract, to make the 199 Department on the same.

200 "Sale" means any transfer of title or possession, or both, exchange, barter, lease or rental, conditional

202 rendition of a taxable service for a consideration, and includes the fabrication of tangible personal 203 property for consumers who furnish, either directly or indirectly, the materials used in fabrication, and 204 the furnishing, preparing, or serving for a consideration of any tangible personal property consumed on 205 the premises of the person furnishing, preparing, or serving such tangible personal property. A
206 transaction whereby the possession of property is transferred but the seller retains title as security for the 207 payment of the price shall be deemed a sale.

208 "Sales price" means the total amount for which tangible personal property or services are sold,
209 including any services that are a part of the sale, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise,
210 and includes any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser, consumer, or lessee by the dealer,
211 without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used,
212 labor or service costs, losses or any other expenses whatsoever. "Sales price" does not include (i) any 213 cash discount allowed and taken; (ii) finance charges, carrying charges, service charges or interest from 214 credit extended on sales of tangible personal property under conditional sale contracts or other 215 conditional contracts providing for deferred payments of the purchase price; (iii) separately stated local

218 gratuity or service charge added by a restaurant to the price of a meal, but only to the extent that such 219 mandatory gratuity or service charge does not exceed 20 percent of the price of the meal. Where used
220 articles are taken in trade, or in a series of trades as a credit or part payment on the sale of new or used
221 articles, the tax levied by this chapter shall be paid on the net difference between the sales price of the 222 new or used articles and the credit for the used articles.

223 "Semiconductor cleanrooms" means the integrated systems, fixtures, piping, partitions, flooring,
224 lighting, equipment, and all other property used to reduce contamination or to control airflow,
225 temperature, humidity, vibration, or other environmental conditions required for the integrated process of 226 semiconductor manufacturing.

227 "Semiconductor equipment" means (i) machinery or tools or repair parts or replacements thereof; (ii)
228 the related accessories, components, pedestals, bases, or foundations used in connection with the

234 production parameters regardless of where or when the quality control, testing, or measuring activity
235 takes place, how the activity affects the operation of equipment, or whether the equipment and supplies
236 come into contact with the product.

237 "Storage" means any keeping or retention of tangible personal property for use, consumption or 238 distribution in the Commonwealth, or for any purpose other than sale at retail in the regular course of 239 business.
