some of his property and financial affairs for limited purposes that are specified in the order.

C. Unless the guardian has a professional relationship with the incapacitated person or is employed by or affiliated with a facility where the person resides, the court's order may authorize the guardian to consent to the admission of the person to a facility pursuant to § 37.2-805.1, upon finding by clear and convincing evidence that (i) the person has severe and persistent mental illness that significantly impairs the person's capacity to exercise judgment or self-control, as confirmed by the evaluation of a licensed psychiatrist; (ii) such condition is unlikely to improve in the foreseeable future; and (iii) the guardian has formulated a plan for providing ongoing treatment of the person's illness in the least restrictive setting suitable for the person's condition.

D. A guardian need not be appointed for a person who has appointed an agent under an advance directive executed in accordance with the provisions of Article 8 (§ 54.1-2981 et seq.) of Chapter 29 of Title 54.1, unless the court determines that the agent is not acting in accordance with the wishes of the principal or there is a need for decision making outside the purview of the advance directive.

A conservator need not be appointed for a person (i) who has appointed an agent under a durable power of attorney, unless the court determines pursuant to the Uniform Power of Attorney Act (§ 64.2-1600 et seq.) that the agent is not acting in the best interests of the principal or there is a need for decision making outside the purview of the durable power of attorney or (ii) whose only or major source of income is from the Social Security Administration or other government program and who has a representative payee.

The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of the incapacitated person at such hearing. The guardian shall obtain and submit to the court an evaluation report within a reasonable time prior to the periodic review hearing. The provisions of § 64.2-2005 shall apply to the evaluation report submitted pursuant to the provisions of this section, mutatis mutandis.

§ 64.2-2019. Duties and powers of guardian.

A. A guardian shall not be required to expend personal funds on behalf of the incapacitated person.

B. A guardian's duties and authority shall not extend to decisions addressed in a valid advance directive or durable power of attorney previously executed by the incapacitated person. A guardian may seek court authorization to revoke, suspend, or otherwise modify a durable power of attorney, as provided by the Uniform Power of Attorney Act (§ 64.2-1600 et seq.). Notwithstanding the provisions of the Health Care Decisions Act (§ 54.1-2981 et seq.) and in accordance with the procedures of § 64.2-2012, a guardian may seek court authorization to modify the designation of an agent under an advance directive, but the modification shall not in any way affect the incapacitated person's directives concerning the provision or refusal of specific medical treatments or procedures.

C. A guardian shall maintain sufficient contact with the incapacitated person to know of his capabilities, limitations, needs, and opportunities. The guardian shall visit the incapacitated person as often as necessary *and at least once every 90 days. D. A guardian shall be required to seek prior court authorization to change the incapacitated person's residence to another state, to terminate or consent to a termination of the person's parental rights, or to initiate a change in the person's marital status.

E. A guardian shall, to the extent feasible, encourage the incapacitated person to participate in decisions, to act on his own behalf, and to develop or regain the capacity to manage personal affairs. A guardian, in making decisions, shall consider the expressed desires and personal values of the incapacitated person to the extent known and shall otherwise act in the incapacitated person's best interest and exercise reasonable care, diligence, and prudence. A guardian shall not ~~unreasonably~~ restrict an incapacitated person's ability to communicate with, visit, or interact with other persons with whom the incapacitated person has an established relationship unless such restriction is necessary to prevent physical, mental, or emotional harm to or financial exploitation of such incapacitated person. Such restriction shall only be imposed pursuant to § 64.2-2019.1.

E1. A guardian shall complete the training developed by the Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services pursuant to subdivision B 11 of § 51.5-150 within four months of the date of entry of the initial order of appointment pursuant to § 64.2-2009.

F. A guardian shall have authority to make arrangements for the funeral and disposition of remains after the death of an incapacitated person if, after the guardian has made a good faith effort to locate the next of kin of the incapacitated person to determine if the next of kin wishes to make such arrangements, the next of kin does not wish to make the arrangements or the next of kin cannot be located. Good faith effort shall include contacting the next of kin identified in the petition for appointment of a guardian. The funeral service licensee, funeral service establishment, registered crematory, cemetery, cemetery operator, or guardian shall be immune from civil liability for any act, decision, or omission resulting from acceptance of any dead body for burial, cremation, or other disposition when the provisions of this section are met, unless such acts, decisions, or omissions resulted from bad faith or malicious intent.

§ 64.2-2019.1. Procedures to restrict communication, visitation, or interaction.

A. A guardian may restrict an incapacitated person's ability to communicate with, visit, or interact with other persons with whom the incapacitated person has an established relationship only when such restriction is necessary to prevent physical, mental, or emotional harm to or financial exploitation of such incapacitated person. Any such restrictions imposed shall be the least restrictive means possible to prevent any such harm or exploitation.

B. The guardian shall provide written notice to the restricted person, on a form developed by the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia, of (i) the nature and terms of the restriction, (ii) the reasons why the guardian believes the restriction is necessary, and (iii) how the restricted person may challenge such restriction in court. The guardian shall forward a copy of such written notice to the local department of social services of the jurisdiction where the incapacitated person resides.

C. Any restricted person, by means of the form described in subsection B or by separate petition, may petition the circuit court to be allowed communication, a visit, or interaction with an incapacitated person. A hearing held pursuant to this subsection shall be held within 45 days of return of such form to the court or filing of such petition with the court.

D. If the court finds upon clear and convincing evidence that a restriction is necessary to prevent physical, mental, or emotional harm to or financial exploitation of such incapacitated person, the court may restrict an incapacitated person's right to communicate with, visit, or interact with a restricted person. The court may issue an order continuing such restriction or altering such restriction in its discretion.

305 E. If the court does not find upon clear and convincing evidence that a restriction is necessary to 306 prevent physical, mental, or emotional harm to or financial exploitation of such incapacitated person,
307 the court shall issue an order lifting or altering any restriction the guardian imposed on the person
308 challenging such restriction.

309 F. If the court finds that a guardian imposed restrictions or brought a petition under this section in

311 or reimburse all or some of the incapacitated person's and restricted person's reasonable costs and fees, 312 including attorney fees. Upon notification by the incapacitated person or any other person that the
