

2022 SESSION

ENROLLED

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 40

Commending Carrie Brockwell.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 9, 2022

WHEREAS, Carrie Brockwell, a sophomore at Appomattox Regional Governor's School in Petersburg who has been singing to the delight of audiences in Chesterfield County and beyond for many years, will appear on the hit television show American Idol in 2022; and

WHEREAS, Carrie Brockwell is accomplished on both the piano and guitar, providing pleasant music to accompany her beautiful and powerful voice; and

WHEREAS, early in her music career, Carrie Brockwell "cut her chops" singing alongside her father, Barry, and her uncle, Bruce, in their band Redneck Pool Party; and

WHEREAS, Carrie Brockwell recently auditioned for Season 20 of American Idol, the hit television show that has produced some of America's most beloved artists, with hopes of joining the long roster of famous artists the show has produced; and

WHEREAS, Carrie Brockwell has performed at high-profile events like the 2019 Chesterfield County Investiture ceremony and currently graces stages at local restaurants and clubs in Chesterfield, contributing greatly to the rich musical culture of the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, Carrie Brockwell's achievements as a musician are the result of her extraordinary talent and dedication and the outpouring of support from her family, friends, and fans; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Carrie Brockwell hereby be commended for entertaining and inspiring the Chesterfield County community on the occasion of her national television debut; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Carrie Brockwell as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for her accomplishments and best wishes for her future success.

ENROLLED

SR40ER