Second House    ☐ In Committee    ☐ Substitute    ☒ Enrolled

2. Patron: Coyner

3. Committee: Passed Both Houses

4. Title: Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation; effect of criminal convictions.

5. Summary: Provides for consideration of certain factors to be made by any regulatory board prior to denying an application for licensure, certification, or registration where such denial was made in whole or in part upon the existence of the applicant's criminal record. Beginning July 1, 2025, the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation is required to include certain data related to the criminal history of applicants to each agency's boards in its biennial report. The bill contains technical amendments and will not become effective unless reenacted by the General Assembly in 2023.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Final

7a. Expenditure Impact:

Fiscal Year	Dollars	Positions	Fund
2026	$60,529	-	09222
2027	$53,529	-	09222
2028	$53,529	-	09222
2029	$53,529	-	09222

8. Fiscal Implications: This bill increases the administrative responsibilities of the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation (DPOR) by requiring the compilation and reporting of criminal history data for all regulatory boards within DPOR. DPOR estimates that one additional part time employee will be needed to compile the data, beginning in FY 2026. Based on current pay scales within the Department, the staff cost is estimated at $38,754 annually. Additionally, the Department projects administrative and support one-time costs of $7,000 and annual costs of $14,775.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No

11. Other Comments: This bill is the companion to SB 409.
