Second House	<input type="checkbox"/> In Committee	<input type="checkbox"/> Substitute	<input type="checkbox"/> Enrolled

2. Patron: Obenshain

3. Committee: Commerce and Labor

4. Title: Public employees; labor union dues deduction authorization.

5. Summary: Requires consent by public employees authorized to engage in collective bargaining before union or employee association dues are deducted from the employees' pay directly by their employers. The bill allows public employees to stop paying union or employee association dues at any time and gives public employees an annual opportunity to reconfirm that they want to continue union or employee association membership and pay such dues. The bill provides that if an employee does not reconfirm then the dues deduction must cease.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: None – see item 8

8. Fiscal Implications: Most of the provisions of this bill apply only to localities that have adopted a local ordinance or resolution providing for collective bargaining and as such, do not generate a state fiscal impact. The provision directing the Attorney General, in consultation with the Department of Labor and Industry to send an annual notice to such public employers is not expected to generate a fiscal impact.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department of Labor and Industry, Office of the Attorney General, localities that have adopted a local ordinance or resolution providing for collective bargaining pursuant to §40.1-57.2, Code of Virginia.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No

11. Other Comments: HB341 is similar to SB721.
