4. Title: Peninsula Airport Commission.

5. Summary: Adds to the Peninsula Airport Commission (the Commission) two members from the City of Hampton, two members from the City of Poquoson, two members from the City of Williamsburg, one member from James City County, and one member from York County, appointed by the governing bodies thereof. The bill provides that any such locality is automatically excluded from the Commission if it fails to pay its proportionate share of the cost of participation by June 30, 2023. The bill repeals various provisions authorizing certain localities to join the Commission upon the terms and consent of the Commission. The bill provides a schedule for original appointments and requires the City of Newport News to determine which two of its four members will continue as members and provides that the terms of the other two members representing the City of Newport News expire on July 1, 2022.
