Article 38.

Virginia Pandemic Response and Preparedness Council.

§ 2.2-2699.16. Virginia Pandemic Response and Preparedness Council; purpose; membership; compensation; chairman.

INTRODUCED

HB87

59 A. The Virginia Pandemic Response and Preparedness Council (the Council) is established as an 60 advisory council in the executive branch of state government. The purpose of the Council is to advise 61 the Governor and develop recommendations regarding the performance of existing laws in the 62 Commonwealth in relation to the Commonwealth's pandemic response.

63 B. The Council shall have a total membership of 25 members that shall consist of 10 legislative 64 members, eight nonlegislative citizen members, and seven ex officio members. Members shall be 65 appointed as follows: five members of the House of Delegates, to be appointed by the Speaker of the 66 House of Delegates in accordance with the principles of proportional representation contained in the 67 Rules of the House of Delegates; five members of the Senate, to be appointed by the Senate Committee
68 on Rules; eight nonlegislative citizen members, to include a representative from the K-12 public
69 education system, a representative from a four-year institution of higher education, representatives from 70 public and private hospitals or health care systems, a representative from a private business, and a
71 local elected official, each to be appointed by the Governor. The Secretaries of Commerce and Trade,
72 Education, Finance, Health and Human Resources, Labor, Public Safety and Homeland Security, and 73 Veterans and Defense Affairs, or their designees, shall serve ex officio with voting privileges.
74 Nonlegislative citizen members of the Council shall be citizens of the Commonwealth.

75 Legislative members and ex officio members shall serve terms coincident with their terms of office.
76 Nonlegislative citizen members shall be appointed for a term of two years. Appointments to fill
77 vacancies, other than by expiration of a term, shall be for the unexpired terms. Legislative members and 78 nonlegislative citizen members may be reappointed. However, no nonlegislative citizen member shall 79 serve more than four consecutive two-year terms. The remainder of any term to which a member is 80 appointed to fill a vacancy shall not constitute a term in determining the member's eligibility for 81 reappointment. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments.

82 C. Legislative members of the Council shall receive such compensation as provided in § 30-19.12.
83 Nonlegislative citizen members shall not receive compensation. All members shall be reimbursed for 84 reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in 85 §§ 2.2-2813 and 2.2-2825. Compensation to members of the General Assembly for attendance at official
86 meetings of the Council shall be paid by the office of the Clerk of the House of Delegates or office of 87 the Clerk of the Senate, as applicable. Reimbursement for the reasonable and necessary expenses of 88 nonlegislative citizen members of the Council shall be paid by the Office of the Secretary of Health and 89 Human Resources.

90 D. The Council shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from among its membership. A majority of 91 the members shall constitute a quorum. The meetings of the Council shall be held at the call of the 92 chairman or whenever a majority of the members so request.

93 E. The Office of the Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall provide staff support to the 94 Council. All agencies of the Commonwealth shall provide assistance to the Council, upon request.

95 § 2.2-2699.17. Powers and Duties of the Council.

96 The Council shall have the power and duty to:

97 1. Examine the performance of existing laws in the Commonwealth in relation to the 98 Commonwealth's pandemic response.

99 2. Develop recommendations regarding:

100 a. The scope of the Governor's powers in long-term states of emergency and the feasibility of 101 legislative oversight of such powers;

102 b. The adequacy, resilience, and performance of the General Assembly and local governments;

103 c. The adequacy, resilience, and performance of public and private health care systems, including an 104 assessment of the adequacy of regulations relating to vulnerable Virginians, such as those in nursing
105 homes or congregate care;

106 d. The adequacy, resilience, and performance of the emergency management and public health care
107 systems, including (i) the need for stockpiling and planning for distribution of pandemic response
108 supplies and materials; (ii) the performance of local health districts and the feasibility of allowing for 109 local decision-making during pandemics, in contrast to delivery of routine services; and (iii) the existing 110 system's ability to detect and prevent future outbreaks and deploy health care solutions;

111 e. The adequacy, resilience, and performance of the judicial system and the need to develop future
112 emergency plans to facilitate better responsiveness;

113 f. The adequacy, resilience, and performance of Virginia Freedom of Information Act, homeowners'
114 association, and corporate meeting rules and the need to develop future emergency plans to facilitate 115 better responsiveness;

116 g. The adequacy, resilience, and performance of the K-12 and higher education systems and the need
117 to develop future emergency plans to facilitate better responsiveness; and

118 h. The adequacy, resilience, and performance of the business regulatory system and the need to 119 develop future emergency plans to facilitate better responsiveness.

120 3. Submit to the Governor and the General Assembly an annual report for publication as a report

121 document as provided in the procedures of the Division of Legislative Automated Systems for the 122 processing of legislative documents and reports. The chairman shall submit to the Governor and the 123 General Assembly an annual executive summary of the interim activity and work of the Council no later
124 than the first day of each regular session of the General Assembly. The executive summary shall be 125 submitted for publication as a report document as provided in the procedures of the Division of 126 Legislative Automated Systems for the processing of legislative documents and reports and shall be 127 posted on the General Assembly's website.
128     § 2.2-2699.18. Sunset.
129     This article shall expire on July 1, 2024.
