A. The Public Employee Relations Board is established as a supervisory board, within the meaning of § 2.2-2100, in the executive branch of state government. The Board shall be composed of three members, of which:

1. One member shall be representative of management;

2. One member shall be representative of labor, who shall be selected from a list of names submitted by the Virginia AFL-CIO; and

3. One member shall be a nonlegislative citizen member.

The Governor shall make initial appointments to the Board by October 1, 2022. The appointments shall be subject to confirmation by the General Assembly. The member described in subdivision 3 shall serve as chair of the Board. All members shall be appointed by the Governor for a term of three years or until their successors have been appointed and qualified, provided that the initial appointment of the member described in subdivision 1 shall be for a term of one year and the initial appointment of the member described in subdivision 2 shall be for a term of two years.

C. A minimum of two members shall be required to constitute a quorum to conduct official business of the Board in a contested case. In the event that there are two or more vacancies on the Board for a period of 120 days or more, a party to a contested case may seek to remove the case to the circuit court for the locality where the case arose.

D. Members of the Board shall receive such compensation for the performance of their duties as provided in § 2.2-2813. However, the chair of the Board shall be entitled to such compensation for the performance of his duties as may be provided therefor in the appropriation act. All members shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in §§ 2.2-2813 and 2.2-2825. Funding for the costs of compensation and expenses of the members shall be provided by the Department.

E. The Board shall:

1. Administer the provisions of this article;

2. Hold hearings and administer oaths, examine witnesses and documents, take testimony and receive evidence, issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of records, and delegate such power to a member of the Board, or persons appointed or employed by the Board, including hearing officers for the performances of its functions. In cases of refusal to obey a subpoena issued by the Board, the circuit court of the locality where the person refusing to obey such subpoena may be found, on application by the Board, may issue an order requiring such person to appear before the Board and to testify and produce evidence ordered relating to the matter under investigation, and any failure to obey such order shall be punished by the court as a contempt thereof; and

3. Adopt such regulations and rules as it may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this article.

F. The Board shall have the power to:

1. Sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, and complain and defend in all courts;

2. Adopt, use, and alter at will a common seal;

3. Make and enter into all contracts and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its duties, the furtherance of its purposes, and the execution of its powers under this article;

4. Employ, at its discretion, such employees as may be necessary and fix their compensation to be payable from funds made available to the Board. Legal services for the Board shall be provided by the Attorney General in accordance with Chapter 5 (§ 2.2-500 et seq.) of Title 2.2;

5. Adopt, alter, and repeal bylaws, rules, and regulations governing the manner in which its business shall be transacted and the manner in which the powers of the Board shall be exercised and its duties performed. The Board may delegate or assign any duty or task to be performed by the Board to any officer or employee of the Board. The Board shall remain responsible for the performance of any such duties or tasks. Any delegation pursuant to this subdivision shall, where appropriate, be accompanied by written guidelines for the exercise of the duties or tasks delegated. Where appropriate, the guidelines shall require that the Board receive summaries of actions taken. Such delegation or assignment shall not relieve the Board of the responsibility to ensure faithful performance of the duties and tasks;

6. Conduct or engage in any lawful activity, effort, or project consistent with the Board's purposes or necessary or convenient to exercise its powers;

7. Develop policies and procedures generally applicable to the procurement of goods, services, and construction, based upon competitive principles;

8. Develop policies and procedures consistent with Article 4 (§ 2.2-4347 et seq.) of Chapter 43 of Title 2.2;

9. Hold and conduct hearings; issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of records, memoranda, papers, and other documents before the Board or any agent of the Board; and administer oaths and take testimony thereunder. The Board may authorize any Board member or agent of the Board to hold and conduct hearings, issue subpoenas, administer oaths and take testimony thereunder, and decide cases, subject to final decision by the Board, on application of any party aggrieved. The Board may enter into consent agreements. Any such consent agreement shall include findings of fact and may include an admission or a finding of a violation. A consent agreement shall not be considered a case decision of the Board and shall not be subject to judicial review under the provisions of the Administrative Process Act (§ 2.2-4000 et seq.), but may be considered by the Board in future proceedings; and

10. Do all acts necessary or advisable to carry out the purposes of this article.

§ 40.1-57.8. Powers of public employers.

Unless limited by the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement or by other statutory provisions, a public employer may:

1. Direct the work of, hire, promote, assign, transfer, demote, suspend, discharge, or terminate public employees;

2. Determine qualifications for employment and the nature and content of personnel examinations; and

3. Take actions as may be necessary to carry out the mission of the public employer in emergencies as defined in § 44-146.16.

§ 40.1-57.9. Duty to negotiate in good faith.

A. The public employer and an employee organization that is the exclusive bargaining representative shall meet at reasonable times, including meetings reasonably in advance of the public employer's budget-making process, to negotiate in good faith with respect to wages and benefits, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment. The collective bargaining agreement negotiated between the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative shall contain a grievance resolution procedure that shall apply to all employees in the bargaining unit and shall provide for final and binding arbitration of disputes concerning disciplinary and adverse personnel actions and the administration or interpretation of the agreement, including questions of eligibility for arbitration. The collective bargaining agreement negotiated between the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative shall also include a provision for the payroll deduction of fees and dues to such labor organization. Where an employee is in a bargaining unit represented by an exclusive representative, the public employer shall honor a payroll deduction authorization only for dues and fees paid to the exclusive representative. The public employer shall negotiate only with the exclusive bargaining representative on matters contained in this article. Such obligation to negotiate in good faith does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or make a concession.

B. The public employer shall honor the terms of employees' authorizations for payroll deductions to an exclusive representative made in any form including those that satisfy the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (§ 59.1-479 et seq.), including without limitation electronic authorizations and voice authorizations. Unless the exclusive representative otherwise directs, the public employees' requests to cancel or change authorizations for payroll deductions shall be directed to the exclusive representative and not to the public employer. The exclusive bargaining representative shall be responsible for processing these requests in accordance with the terms of the authorization. An exclusive representative that certifies that it has and will maintain individual public employees' authorizations shall not be required to provide a copy to the public employer unless a dispute arises about the existence or terms of that authorization. The exclusive bargaining representative shall indemnify the public employer for any disputed deductions made by a public employee for deductions in reliance on that authorization.

C. 1. a. Not later than 10 calendar days after the hire of a public employee, a public employer shall provide the following contact information to such employee's exclusive bargaining representative, in an editable electronic format agreed to by the exclusive bargaining representative: name, job title, worksite location, home address, work telephone number, and any home telephone number, personal cell phone number, and personal email address on file with the public employer.

b. A public employer shall provide the exclusive bargaining representatives with a list of all contact information specified in subdivision a in an editable electronic format agreed to by the exclusive bargaining representative, for all employees in a bargaining unit, not less than once a month.

c. Records of public employee contact information specified in subdivisions a and b are not public records under the Virginia Public Records Act (§ 42.1-76 et seq.).

2. A public employer shall provide an exclusive bargaining representative reasonable access to the public employees that the exclusive bargaining representative represents. Such access includes:

a. The right to meet with employees during the work day to discuss and investigate grievances and other workplace issues;

b. The right to conduct worksite meetings during meal periods and other breaks, and before and after the workday; and

c. The right to address newly hired employees on paid time for no less than 30 minutes during new employee orientations, within 30 days of hire or, if the public employer does not conduct new employee orientations, at individual or group meetings of new employees within 30 days of hire. Attendance at such orientations or meetings shall be mandatory for newly hired employees. Managers, supervisors, and other non-bargaining unit employees shall not attend the exclusive bargaining representative's presentation. The public employer shall give the exclusive bargaining representative not less than 10 days' written notice of such an orientation, except shorter notice may be provided where there is an urgent need critical to the public employer's operations that was not reasonably foreseeable by the public employer. The structure and manner of such access to new employee orientations shall be determined through mutual agreement.

3. Exclusive bargaining representatives shall have the right to communicate with bargaining unit members concerning collective bargaining; the administration of collective bargaining agreements, grievances, and other workplace issues; and internal union matters via the employer's email systems or other communication systems commonly used at the workplace.

§ 40.1-57.10. Prohibited conduct.

A. No public employer or exclusive bargaining representative shall refuse to negotiate in good faith with respect to the scope of negotiations as defined in § 40.1-57.11.

B. No public employer or its designated representative shall:

1. Interfere with, restrain, or coerce public employees in the exercise of rights granted by this article;

2. Dominate or interfere in the administration of any employee organization;

3. Encourage or discourage membership in any employee organization, committee, or association including by discrimination in hiring, tenure, or other terms or conditions of employment;

4. Discharge or discriminate against any public employee because he has filed an affidavit, petition, or complaint or given any information or testimony under this article, or because he has formed, joined, or chosen to be represented by any exclusive bargaining representative;

5. Refuse to negotiate collectively with representatives of any employee organization that is an exclusive bargaining representative as required in this article;

6. Deny the rights accompanying certification as the exclusive representative granted in this article;

7. Refuse to participate in good faith in any agreed-upon impasse procedures or those set forth in this article;

8. Refuse to reduce a collective bargaining agreement to writing and sign such agreement; or

9. Disclose to any private entity, other than the exclusive representative, personally identifiable information about public employees within a bargaining unit that is exempt from disclosure, including the contact information specified in § 40.1-57.9.

C. No employee organization or its agents shall:

1. Interfere with, restrain, or coerce a public employee with respect to rights granted in this article or with respect to selecting an exclusive representative;

2. Fail to represent an employee who is in a bargaining unit exclusively represented by the employee organization fairly and without discrimination provided such failure is willful or deliberate;

3. Refuse to bargain collectively with the public employer as required in this article;

4. Refuse to participate in good faith in any agreed-upon impasse procedures or procedures set forth in this article; or

5. Violate the impasse provisions of this article, which hereby are made applicable to public employers, public employees, and exclusive representatives.

§ 40.1-57.11. Board procedures.

A. Proceedings against a party alleging a violation of § 40.1-57.10 shall be commenced by filing a charge with the Board within six months of the alleged violation, or acquiring knowledge thereof, and causing a copy of the charge to be served upon the accused party in the manner of an original notice

305 as provided in § 40.1-57.21. The accused party shall have 10 days within which to file a written answer
306 to the charge. The Board may conduct a preliminary investigation of the alleged violation, and if the 307 Board determines that the charge has no legal or factual basis, it may dismiss the charge. If it does not
308 dismiss the charge, the Board shall promptly thereafter set a time and place for a hearing in the locality
309 where the alleged violation occurred or in the locality where the Board maintains its principal office.
310 The parties shall be permitted to be represented by counsel or other designated representative, summon
311 witnesses, and request the Board to subpoena witnesses and the production of records on the requester's
312 behalf. Compliance with the technical rules of pleading and evidence shall not be required.

313 B. The Board may designate a hearing officer to conduct any hearing. The hearing officer shall have 314 such powers as may be exercised by the Board for conducting the hearing and shall follow the 315 procedures adopted by the Board for conducting the hearing. The decision of the hearing officer may be 316 appealed to the Board and the Board may hear the case de novo or upon the record as submitted 317 before the hearing officer.

318 C. The Board shall provide for an official written transcript to report the proceedings and the Board
319 shall affix the reasonable amount of compensation for such service, which amount shall be taxed as 320 other costs.

321 D. The Board shall file its findings of fact and conclusions of law. If the Board finds that the party
322 accused has violated any provision of this article, the Board may issue an order directing the party to 323 cease and desist engaging in violation and may order such other affirmative relief as is necessary to 324 remedy the violation. The Board may petition the circuit court for the locality in which the Board 325 maintains its principal office, the locality in which the public employer maintains its principal office, or 326 the locality in which the charge arose for enforcement of its orders.

327 E. Any party aggrieved by any decision or order of the Board may, within 21 days from the date
328 such decision or order is filed, appeal to the circuit court for the locality in which the Board maintains 329 its principal office, the locality in which the public employer maintains its principal office, or the 330 locality in which the charge arose to obtain judicial review of an order of the Board entered under this 331 article. The Board and all parties of record in the proceedings before the Board shall be named as 332 parties to the appeal. In any judicial review proceeding, the employee organization may sue or be sued
333 as an entity and on behalf of the employees whom it represents. The service of legal process, summons, 334 or subpoena upon an officer or agent of the employee organization in his capacity as such shall 335 constitute service upon such employee organization.

336 F. Within 30 days after a notice of appeal is filed with the Board, the Board shall make, certify, and 337 file with the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken a full and complete transcript of all
338 documents in the case, including any depositions and a transcript or certificate of the evidence together
339 with the notice of appeal.

340 G. The transcript as certified and filed by the Board shall be the record on which the appeal shall 341 be heard, and no additional evidence shall be heard. In the absence of fraud, the findings of fact made
342 by the Board shall be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a 343 whole.

344 H. Any order or decision of the Board may be modified, reversed, or set aside on one or more of the 345 following grounds and on no other:

- 346 1. If the Board acts without or in excess of its power;
- 347 2. If the order was procured by fraud or is contrary to law;
- 348 3. If the facts found by the Board do not support the order; or
- 349 4. If the order is not supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole.

350 I. When the circuit court, on appeal, reverses or sets aside an order or decision of the Board, it may 351 remand the case to the Board for further proceedings in harmony with the holdings of the court, or it
352 may enter the proper judgment, as the case may be. Such judgment or decree shall have the same force 353 and effect as if action had been originally brought and tried in such court. The assessment of costs in 354 such appeals shall be at the discretion of the court.

355 § 40.1-57.12. Determination of appropriate bargaining unit.

356 A. Any determination by the Board of an appropriate bargaining unit shall be made upon a petition
357 being filed by an employee organization or in accordance with this section. Any disputes about the 358 placement of employees in bargaining units established in subsection C shall be resolved by the Board.

359 B. When a determination of an appropriate unit is necessary, within 30 days of receipt of a petition,
360 the Board shall conduct a public hearing, receive written or oral testimony, and promptly thereafter file
361 an order defining the appropriate bargaining unit. In defining the unit, the Board shall consider first 362 and foremost the desires of the public employees through the filing employee organization and shall take 363 into consideration, along with other relevant factors, the community of interest including such factors as 364 the similarity of duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees involved; wages and benefits,
365 hours, and other working conditions of the public employees; the efficiency of operations of the public 366 employer; the administrative structure of the public employer; the recommendation of the parties; and the history of collective bargaining in other public sector jurisdictions. Nothing herein shall prohibit the petitioning employee organization and the public employer from entering into a consent agreement on the appropriate unit in lieu of a hearing.

C. Bargaining units of state employees shall include employees in broad classification categories across the various agencies and departments of the executive branch. There shall be bargaining units for each of the following:

1. Administrative services;
2. Education and media services;
3. Engineering and technology;
4. Health and human services counseling services and health care compliance;
5. Health and human services direct services;
6. Health and human services health care technology, rehabilitation therapies, pharmaceutical service, and nurse/physician assistant service;
7. Health and human services physician service, psychological service, and dental service;
8. Natural resources and applied science;
9. Security guards and protective services;
10. Corrections;
11. Juvenile justice;
12. Probation and parole;
13. Law enforcement;
14. Firefighters;
15. Other public safety services not described in another subdivision of this subsection; and
16. Trades and operations.

D. Each state-controlled enterprise, independent political subdivision, authority, or agency employing public employees not covered by the Virginia Personnel Act (§ 2.2-2900 et seq.), shall have separate bargaining units of such employees as determined by the Board.

E. Each public institution of higher education, the Virginia Community College System, the University of Virginia Medical Center, and the Virginia Commonwealth University Health Care System shall have separate bargaining units as determined by the Board, and employees of such bargaining units shall not be included with employees in any bargaining unit described in subsection C.

F. Upon request of the exclusive representative involved, there shall be bargaining for state employees by a coalition of all or some exclusive representatives, irrespective of a bargaining unit of state employees described in subsection C, concerning wages and benefits, fringe benefits, and those matters that have applicability to more than one bargaining unit of state employees. Upon request of the exclusive representative, there shall be supplementary bargaining on behalf of public employees in a bargaining unit or part of a bargaining unit concerning matters uniquely affecting those public employees, or consolidated bargaining between two or more bargaining units concerning matters affecting those public employees.

§ 40.1-57.13. Certification and decertification of exclusive bargaining representative; representation elections.

A. Board certification of an employee organization as the exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit shall be upon receipt of a petition filed with the Board by a public employee or an employee organization and an election pursuant to § 40.1-57.14 or upon administratively acceptable evidence that a majority of bargaining unit employees authorized an employee organization to represent them for the purposes of collective bargaining.

B. A petition of an employee organization for a representation election shall be accompanied by administratively acceptable evidence that 30 percent of the public employees in an appropriate bargaining unit are members of the employee organization or have authorized it to represent them for the purposes of collective bargaining. A petition by an employee organization for certification without an election shall be accompanied by administratively acceptable evidence alleging that a majority of the public employees in an appropriate bargaining unit are members of the employee organization or have authorized it to represent them for the purposes of collective bargaining. Upon validating the evidence that a majority of the public employees in a bargaining unit are members of the employee organization or have authorized it to represent them for the purposes of collective bargaining, the Board shall certify the employee organization as the exclusive bargaining representative of the bargaining unit.

C. For the purpose of decertification, the petition of a public employee or employee organization shall allege that an employee organization that has been certified or recognized as the exclusive bargaining representative of an appropriate unit does not represent a majority of such public employees and that the petitioners do not want to be represented by an employee organization or seek certification of a different employee organization. Such petition shall be accompanied by administratively acceptable evidence that 50 percent of such employees do not want to be represented by the exclusive

428 representative employee organization or seek certification of a different employee organization. Upon 429 validation of the 50 percent showing of interest, the Board shall conduct a secret ballot election in 430 accordance with this article.

431 D. The Board shall investigate the allegations of any petition and shall give reasonable notice of the 432 receipt of such petition to all public employees, employee organizations, and public employers named or 433 described in such petitions or interested in the representation question. When necessary, the Board shall 434 call an election under § 40.1-57.14 within 30 days of receipt of a petition unless it finds that less than 435 30 percent of the public employees in the unit appropriate for collective bargaining support the petition
436 for certification, or it finds that less than 50 percent of employees in the unit appropriate for collective 437 bargaining support the petition for decertification, or the appropriate bargaining unit has not been 438 determined pursuant to § 40.1-57.12.

439 E. For purposes of this article, administratively acceptable evidence to support a petition for 440 certification without election, for a certification through a representation election, or for a
441 decertification election may consist of a combination of membership cards, evidence of dues payment,
442 petitions to be represented by a bargaining representative, or other evidence of a public employee's 443 desire to be represented by an employee organization for the purposes of collective bargaining. The 444 determination by the Board of the sufficiency of a showing of majority support or sufficiency of support
445 for a representation election shall not be subject to challenge by any person, employee organization, or 446 public employer.

447 F. The hearing and appeal procedures shall be the same as provided for in § 40.1-57.11.

448 § 40.1-57.14. Elections.

449 A. Whenever a petition for an election is filed by an employee or employee organization containing 450 the signatures of at least 30 percent of the public employees in an appropriate bargaining unit, or 451 containing the signatures of at least 50 percent of the public employees in an appropriate unit in the 452 case of decertification, the Board shall conduct a secret ballot representation election to determine 453 whether the public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit wish to be represented by an exclusive 454 bargaining representative. The ballot shall contain the names of the petitioning employee organization, 455 any employee organization submitting within 10 days of the initial petition a petition containing 456 signatures of at least 30 percent of the public employees within the appropriate bargaining unit, and 457 any incumbent labor organization. The ballot shall also contain a choice of no representation.

458 B. If none of the choices on the ballot receives the vote of a majority of the public employees voting, 459 the Board shall, within 30 days, conduct a run-off election among the two choices receiving the greatest 460 number of votes.

461 C. Upon written objections filed by any party to the election within 10 days after notice of the 462 results of the election, if the Board finds that misconduct or other circumstances prevented the public
463 employees eligible to vote from freely expressing their preferences, the Board may invalidate the election
464 and hold a second or subsequent election for the public employees.

465 D. Upon completion of a valid election in which the majority choice of the bargaining unit
466 employees voting is determined, the Board shall certify the results of the election and shall give 467 reasonable notice to all employee organizations listed on the ballot, the public employers, and the 468 public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit. An employee organization that is the majority 469 choice of the bargaining unit employees voting in a valid election under this section shall be certified by 470 the Board as the exclusive bargaining representative for the bargaining unit employees.

471 E. A petition for decertification or certification of an exclusive bargaining representative shall not be 472 considered by the Board for a period of one year from the date of the certification or noncertification of 473 an exclusive bargaining representative or during the duration of a collective bargaining agreement not 474 to exceed three years. A petition for decertification shall not be considered during the duration of a 475 collective bargaining agreement unless the collective bargaining agreement has been in effect for more
476 than three years or the petition for decertification is filed not more than 210 days and not less than 180
477 days prior to the expiration of the collective bargaining agreement.

478 § 40.1-57.15. Duties of bargaining representative.

479 A. The employee organization certified as the bargaining representative shall be the exclusive
480 representative of all public employees in the bargaining unit and shall represent all public employees
481 fairly, except that any individual employee shall have the right at any time to present a grievance 482 specific to that employee to their public employer and to have such grievances adjusted, without the 483 intervention of the bargaining representative, as long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with the 484 terms of a collective bargaining agreement then in effect and the exclusive bargaining representative has 485 been given the opportunity to be present during the grievance process and at such adjustment.

486 B. The employee organization that is an exclusive bargaining representative and the public employer
487 may designate any individual or individuals as its representatives to engage in collective bargaining 488 negotiations.

489 C. The scope of collective bargaining between a local government and an exclusive bargaining representative of local employees shall include wages and benefits, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, and the duty to bargain includes matters described in Chapter 15 (§ 15.2-1500 et seq.) of Title 15.2; however, benefits provided under Title 51.1 and Title 65.2 shall not be subject to bargaining. To the extent that an agreement is inconsistent with the terms of Chapter 15 of Title 15.2, the terms of the agreement shall prevail. The chief executive officer of a local government shall appoint its representative in collective bargaining.

D. The scope of collective bargaining between a state agency and an exclusive representative of state employees shall include wages and benefits, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment and shall specifically include matters within the administrative discretion of the Director of Human Resource Management or appointing authorities; however, benefits provided under Title 51.1 and Title 65.2 shall not be subject to bargaining. A collective bargaining agreement may not be inconsistent with the provisions of Chapter 28 (§ 2.2-2800 et seq.) of Title 2.2, provided that all matters relating to wages and benefits and employee and employer contributions to such plans shall be a mandatory subject of collective bargaining and enforceable in any collective bargaining agreement notwithstanding any other provision of law. The Governor shall appoint the state agency's representative in collective bargaining.

E. Negotiating sessions, including strategy meetings of public employers or exclusive bargaining representatives, mediation, and the deliberative process of arbitrators shall be exempt from the provisions of § 2.2-3707.

§ 40.1-57.16. Negotiation and impasse procedures.

A. Each state agency and exclusive representative of state employees shall comply with the following negotiation and impasse procedures unless otherwise agreed by the parties to the negotiations:

1. A request for negotiations shall be filed in writing by the exclusive representative to the Commonwealth no later than August 1 of odd-numbered years for collective bargaining agreements that are to become effective on July 1 of the following year;

2. Negotiations shall begin no later than September 10 in the year the request was filed;

3. If an impasse occurs during negotiations, or if no agreement is reached by the parties by December 1 in the year the request was filed, either party may submit a request for mediation to the Board. The parties involved shall mutually agree upon a mediator or request the Board to appoint an impartial mediator;

4. The mediator shall provide services to the parties until the parties reach agreement, the mediator believes that mediation services are no longer helpful, or December 10, whichever occurs first. If the mediator determines that mediation services are no longer helpful or if the December 10 deadline occurs, the parties shall jointly submit the unresolved issues to final and binding arbitration. The parties shall jointly select an arbitrator or, if they are unable to agree on an arbitrator, they shall request a list of seven arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service or the American Arbitration Association. Each party in turn shall strike a name from the list until only one name remains. Negotiations may continue throughout the impasse procedures;

5. Each party shall submit a final offer on each separate item remaining at impasse to the arbitrator and the other party within 10 days of selection of the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall determine that either the final offer of the employer or the final offer of the employee organization on each separate issue shall be incorporated into the final collective bargaining agreement; however, the arbitrator shall not amend the offer of either party on any issue;

6. The arbitrator shall (i) begin hearings no later than January 20 in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Board and (ii) render a decision in writing no later than February 10;

7. Negotiations following the initial certification of an employee organization as an exclusive representative of state employees shall convene within 30 days of the request of either party. Either party may invoke arbitration in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions 4, 5, and 6 any time after 90 days of the first negotiation session. Matters not requiring the approval of the General Assembly shall take effect in accordance with the terms of the agreement or award of an arbitrator. Matters requiring the approval of the General Assembly shall take effect in accordance with § 40.1-57.17. Initial agreements shall expire on June 30 of the next even-numbered year; and

8. All time limits in this subsection may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

B. A request for negotiations shall be filed in writing by an exclusive representative of employees of a local government in a timely fashion reasonably in advance of the local government's budget-making process or in accordance with any collective bargaining agreement in effect.

C. A local government and the exclusive representative may enter into a written agreement setting forth an impasse resolution procedure. The procedure shall culminate with binding arbitration.

D. If local government and the exclusive representative have not agreed to an impasse resolution procedure, negotiation impasses shall be subject to the following procedures:

1. At the request of either party, the parties shall enter into mediation. The parties involved shall mutually agree upon a mediator or request the Board to appoint an impartial mediator.

2. At the request of either party, all impasses not resolved through mediation, or if the parties do not agree to mediation, the issues subject to impasse, shall be submitted to final and binding arbitration. The parties shall jointly select an arbitrator or, if they are unable to agree on an arbitrator, they shall request a list of seven arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service or American Arbitration Association. Each party in turn shall strike a name from the list until only one name remains. Negotiations may continue throughout the impasse procedures.

E. In making any decision under the impasse procedures authorized of this article for any public employer, the panel shall give weight to the following factors:

1. The lawful authority of the public employer;
2. Stipulations of the parties;
3. The interests and welfare of the public;
4. The financial ability of the employer to meet the costs of any items to be included in the contract;
5. Comparison of wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment of the employees involved in the arbitration proceedings with the wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment of other persons performing similar services in the public and private sectors;
6. The average consumer prices for goods and services, commonly known as the cost of living;
7. The overall compensation presently received by the employees involved in the arbitration including wages, insurance benefits, vacations, holidays, and similar benefits;
8. Changes in any of the foregoing circumstances during the pendency of the arbitration proceedings; and
9. Such other factors that are normally or traditionally taken into consideration in the determination of wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment through voluntary collective bargaining, mediation, fact finding, arbitration, or otherwise between the parties, in public service or in private employment.

F. The expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties.

§ 40.1-57.17. Funding for implementation of agreements.

A. After a negotiated agreement has been agreed to by both parties, or a final and binding arbitration decision has been rendered in accordance with § 40.1-57.16, the chief executive of the public employer shall submit a request for funds necessary to implement the agreement and for approval of any other matter requiring the approval of the governing body within five days after (i) the date on which the parties finalize the agreement or (ii) the date on which the arbitration decision is issued, unless otherwise specified in this section. If the governing body is not in session at the time, then the submission shall be within five days after it next convenes.

B. The governing body shall approve or reject the submission as a whole.

C. If the governing body rejects the submission of the public employer, either party may reopen negotiations.

D. The parties shall specify that those provisions of the agreement not requiring action by a governing body shall be effective and operative in accordance with the terms of the agreement.

E. Upon the expiration of an agreement, the terms of such agreement shall remain in effect until superseded by a new agreement.

§ 40.1-57.18. Judicial review.

The circuit court for the locality in which a dispute arose or in which a majority of the affected employees reside may review an award of the arbitrator or an award of an arbitrator in a grievance arbitration, when the arbitrator was without or exceeded his jurisdiction; the order is not supported by competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record; or the order was procured by fraud, collusion or other similar and unlawful means. The pendency of a proceeding for review shall not automatically stay the order of the arbitrator.

§ 40.1-57.19. Strikes; lockouts.

A. In accordance with § 40.1-55, any public employee who, in concert with two or more other such employees, for the purpose of obstructing, impeding, or suspending any activity or operation of his employing agency or any other governmental agency, strikes or willfully refuses to perform the duties of his employment shall, by such action, be deemed to have terminated his employment.

B. A public employer shall not lock out employees in the event of a dispute with an employee organization.

§ 40.1-57.20. Civil procedures; personal liability.

A. Any employee organization and public employer may sue or be sued as an entity under the provisions of this article. Service upon the public employer or upon the exclusive bargaining representative shall be made pursuant to Title 8.01.

B. Nothing in this article shall be construed to make any individual or his assets liable for any judgment against a public employer or an exclusive bargaining representative.

§ 40.1-57.21. Delivery of notices.

Any notice required under the provisions of this article shall be in writing, but service thereof shall

613 be sufficient if mailed by restricted certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the last-known
614 address of the parties, unless otherwise provided in this article or by the rules of the Board, which rules
