A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 37.2-431.1 and 55.1-1201 of the Code of Virginia, relating to certified recovery residences.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 37.2-431.1 and 55.1-1201 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 37.2-431.1. Certified recovery residences.

A. As used in this section:

"Certified recovery residence" means a recovery residence that has been certified by the Department.
"Credentialing entity" means a nonprofit organization that develops and administers professional certification programs according to ~~nationally recognized recovery housing~~ standards of the National Alliance for Recovery Residences or standards endorsed by Oxford House, Inc.

"Level of support" means the level of support and structure that a certified recovery residence provides to residents, as specified in the standards of the National Alliance for Recovery Residences.

"Recovery residence" means a housing facility that provides alcohol-free and illicit-drug-free housing to individuals with substance abuse disorders and individuals with co-occurring mental illnesses and substance abuse disorders that does not include clinical treatment services.

B. Every recovery residence shall disclose to each prospective resident whether the recovery residence is a certified recovery residence and, if so, the credentialing entity. If the credentialing entity is the National Alliance for Recovery Residences, the recovery residence shall disclose the level of support provided by the recovery residence. If the credentialing entity is Oxford House, Inc., the recovery residence shall disclose that the recovery residence is self-governed and unstaffed.

C. No person shall advertise, represent, or otherwise imply to the public that a recovery residence or other housing facility is a certified recovery residence unless such recovery residence or other housing facility has been certified by the Department in accordance with regulations adopted by the Board. Such regulations may require accreditation by or membership in a credentialing agency as a condition of certification.

D. The Department shall maintain a list of certified recovery residences on its website and shall provide (i) for each certified recovery residence included on such list, the credentialing entity; (ii) for certified recovery residences for which the National Alliance of Recovery Residences is the credentialing entity, the level of support provided by the recovery residence; and (iii) for certified recovery residences for which Oxford House, Inc., is the credentialing entity, a disclosure that the recovery residence is self-governed and unstaffed.

E. The Department may institute civil proceedings in the name of the Commonwealth to enjoin any person from violating the provisions of this section and to recover a civil penalty of at least $200 but no more than $1,000 for each violation. Such proceedings shall be brought in the general district or circuit court for the county or city in which the violation occurred or where the defendant resides. Civil penalties assessed under this section shall be paid into the Behavioral Health and Developmental Services Trust Fund established in § 37.2-318.

§ 55.1-1201. Applicability of chapter; local authority.

A. This chapter shall apply to all jurisdictions in the Commonwealth and may not be waived or otherwise modified, in whole or in part, by the governing body of any locality or its boards or commissions or other instrumentalities or by the courts of the Commonwealth. Occupancy in a public housing unit or other housing unit that is a dwelling unit is subject to this chapter; however, if the provisions of this chapter are inconsistent with the regulations of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, such regulations shall control.

B. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to occupancy in all single-family and multifamily dwelling units and multifamily dwelling units located in the Commonwealth.

C. The following tenancies and occupancies are not residential tenancies under this chapter:

1. Residence at a public or private institution, if incidental to detention or the provision of medical, geriatric, educational, counseling, religious, or similar services;

68 including those governed by the Virginia Real Estate Time-Share Act (§ 55.1-2200 et seq.),

70 if such person does not reside in such lodging as his primary residence. Such guest shall be exempt
71 from this chapter, and the innkeeper or property owner, or his agent, shall have the right to use self-help
72 eviction under Virginia law, without the necessity of the filing of an unlawful detainer action in a court
73 of competent jurisdiction and the execution of a writ of eviction issued pursuant to such action, which 74 would otherwise be required under this chapter.

75 2. A hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, including those governed by the
76 Virginia Real Estate Time-Share Act (§ 55.1-2200 et seq.), boardinghouse, or similar transient lodging

82 be subject to the provisions of this chapter. However, the owner of such lodging establishment shall give 83 a five-day written notice of nonpayment to a person residing in such lodging and, upon the expiration of 84 the five-day period specified in the notice, may exercise self-help eviction if payment in full has not
85 been received.

86 4. If a person resides in a hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, including
87 those governed by the Virginia Real Estate Time-Share Act (§ 55.1-2200 et seq.), boardinghouse, or
88 similar transient lodging as his primary residence for more than 90 consecutive days or is subject to a
89 written lease for more than 90 days, such lodging shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

90 5. Nothing herein shall be construed to preclude the owner of a lodging establishment that uses
91 self-help eviction pursuant to this section from pursuing any civil or criminal remedies under the laws of 92 the Commonwealth.

93 E. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a locality from establishing a commission, reconciliatory in
94 nature only, or designating an existing agency, which upon mutual agreement of the parties may mediate
95 conflicts that may arise out of the application of this chapter, nor shall anything in this chapter be
96 deemed to prohibit an ordinance designed to effect compliance with local property maintenance codes.
97 This chapter shall supersede all other local ordinances or regulations concerning landlord and tenant
98 relations and the leasing of residential property.
